Grant: Sidney Myer Performing Arts Awards S02399

Provider: The Myer Foundation

Category: Arts & Culture

Funding: Nominations will be accepted in three categories:

- Individual Award ($40,000)
- Group Award ($70,000)
- Facilitator's Prize ($15,000)

Closes: 18 November 2011

Purpose: To enhance the status of the performing arts in Australia and pay tribute to outstanding achievement in drama, comedy, dance, music, opera, circus and puppetry.

Overview: The Sidney Myer Performing Arts Awards were created in 1984 by the Trustees of the Sidney Myer Fund to mark the 50th anniversary of the death of Sidney Myer.

The Awards were created to commemorate his life and his love for the arts. They intend primarily to enhance the status of performing arts in Australia and recognise outstanding achievements in dance, drama, comedy, music, opera, circus and puppetry.

The Awards are annual and focus on two awards and one prize in the areas of:

- Individual Award
- Group Award
- Facilitator's Prize

The Sidney Myer Performing Arts Awards are announced and presented early each year for the preceding year. The Awards are decided on a national basis and each nomination is considered by a Judging Committee. While past achievement is recognised, consideration is also given to the potential of an individual or group to continue their contribution to Australian society through the performing arts into the future

Provider: The Compassionate Friends

Category: Children & Family

Funding: Various

Closes: 2 December 2011

Purpose: To recognise employers who have shown extra care and compassion to employees - going above and beyond the normal policies of most companies in helping employees who have suffered the death of a loved one.

Overview: TCF believes that employers who have shown extra care and compassion to employees - going above and beyond the normal policies of most companies in helping employees who have suffered the death of a loved one - deserve to be recognised. Whether the organisation you worked for is small, medium or large, we encourage you to consider nominating them.

Over the years we have heard stories from people of how they were treated by their employer after the death of a loved one. Some stories have clearly shown that there are employers out there with high levels of compassion, care, empathy and generosity.

We invite you to nominate your employer for recognition as a 2012 "Compassionate Employer". Nominations for the 2012 Compassionate Employer Recognition are now open.

To nominate your employer please follow the steps below:

- Step 1 Please read the criteria below.
- Step 2 Write your personal story in 400 words or less describing ways in which your company met the specific criteria
- Step 3 Complete the Nomination Form (on other side)
- Step 4 Attach your 400 words to the nomination form.
- Step 5 Send in your Nomination to:

Limitations: Nominations are only accepted for acts of compassion by employers within Australia, and do not include companies, organisations or government agencies specifically created to help the bereaved.

Who can apply: Criteria for Compassionate Employer Recognition might include:

1. Employer who has personally supported you in your bereavement
2. Employer who arranged for additional time off, beyond the familiar three days bereavement leave
3. Employer who provided support services and/or time off eg to obtain counselling or seek a support group A caring attitude and ability to empathise demonstrated by employer's entire workforce
4. Employer who showed flexibility in work assignments and evaluation of job performance during the stress and personal pain associated with the death of a loved one
5. Other acts of compassion that you will remember forever.

These criteria serve as suggested guidelines, and are not considered as all-inclusive.

Grant: Cheaperthanhotels Fundraising Program S04746

Provider: Cheaperthanhotels

Category:Community Services & Development

Funding: Max per grant: $25,000 Min per grant: $250

Closes: Ongoing

Purpose: To offer an innovative fundraising program for community groups, non-profit organizations, schools, universities and sports clubs.

Overview: The Cheaperthanhotels Fundraising program is designed with individuals and smaller organizations in mind and provides financial support to help you in pursuit of your cause. The cause may be anything from supporting a selected charity to fundraising for new computers or sporting equipment at a school, to hold your own art exhibition or to inject funds into your small business. Forget selling chocolates and endless books of raffle tickets, this program generates $8 per sale, and gets people coming back again and again. For every hotel booking made on the CheaperThanHotels family of websites, that has been referred by your organization and can be identified by a specified link or promotional code, Cheaperthanhotels will donate $8 to your organization.

If you have 100 people in your organization, and each of them refers just one booking, you will raise $800. By putting in a small amount of time and effort to spread the word, you will be able to raise a lot more. Cheaperthanhotels is an online accommodation search & booking engine, which aims to provide hotels at prices cheaper than what you can find by booking with the hotel themselves!

Grant: Google Grants G04898

Provider: Google

Category: Community Services & Development

Funding: Various

Closes: Ongoing

You must be a charitable organisation with Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) Status to apply for this grant

(See Part 3 for more information)

Purpose: To award non-profits with free AdWords advertising on Google.com.au to raise awareness and increase traffic.

Overview: Google Grants is a unique and free advertising programme designed for non-profit institutions or funds that have either been endorsed as such in Australia by the Commissioner of Taxation, or prescribed as charitable institutions in the Income Tax Assessment Regulations of 1997. The programme has awarded AdWords advertising to hundreds of qualified non-profit groups whose missions range from animal welfare to literacy, from supporting homeless children to promoting HIV education. Each organisation choosing to participate in Google Grants receives at least three months of free advertising.

Copyright www.ourcommunity.com.au – Not for unauthorised redistribution Page 17 – NT Edition 8 - 2011

Examples: Grant recipients use their award of free AdWords advertising on Google.com.au to raise awareness and increase traffic. Three of our award recipients have achieved these results:

- Room to Read, which educates children in Vietnam, Nepal, India and Cambodia, attracted a sponsor who clicked on its AdWords ad. He has donated funds to support the education of 25 girls for the next 10 years.
- The US Fund for UNICEF's e-commerce site, Shop UNICEF, has experienced a 43 percent increase in sales over the previous year.
- CoachArt, supporting children with life-threatening illnesses through art and athletics programs, has seen a 60 to 70 percent increase in volunteers.

Limitations: You will need to have a website to advertise with Google Grants.

Who can apply: Organisation must be institutions or funds that have either been endorsed as such in Australia by the Commissioner of Taxation, or prescribed as charitable institutions in the Income Tax Assessment Regulations of 1997, to be considered for this programme.
