Grant: Volunteer Grants Program G01906

Provider: Dept of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs

Category: Community Services & Development

Funding: Max per grant: $5,000 Min per grant: $1,000 Total Pool: $16,000,000

Closes: 8 June 2011

Purpose: To support volunteers, assist disadvantaged communities and encourage social inclusion to assist vulnerable people within our society.

Overview: Volunteer Grants 2011 recognises the valuable work of Australia's volunteers and is part of the Government's ongoing commitment to supporting volunteers, assisting disadvantaged communities and encouraging social inclusion to assist vulnerable people within our society. Funding of $16 million is available to eligible not-for-profit community organisations to assist their volunteers and encourage volunteering. Applications will be prioritised according to how strongly they meet the selection criteria.

Volunteer Grants 2011 provides funding of between $1,000 and $5,000 to not-for-profit organisations to:

- Purchase portable, tangible, small equipment items to help volunteers
- Contribute to the reimbursement of fuel costs for their volunteers who use their own car to transport others to activities, deliver food and assist people in need
- Contribute to the reimbursement of transport costs incurred by volunteers with disability who are unable to drive
- Contribute to the costs of training courses and/or undertake background screening checks for volunteers.

Limitations: Organisations that may not be eligible to apply and may not be funded include but are not limited to:

- For-profit organisations, partnerships, research foundations, professional associations or statutory authorities
- Organisations that are not legal entities
- Local Government entities, except where a Local Government sponsors a not-for-profit organisation with volunteers in the following circumstances:
 - where an organisation is not a legal entity in its own right, and
 - the Local Government entity is the only or most reasonable option to sponsor the organisation in the community
- Australian and State/Territory Government departments, except where a State/Territory Government educational institution sponsors the local parents & friends/citizens association in the following circumstances:
 - where a parent association/committee is not a legal entity in its own right, or
 - on behalf of a school council/board whose legal status is linked to the school's governing body, such as a State/Territory Government school
- Trustees on behalf of a trust.

If you are not sure about your organisation's legal entity status consult your Treasurer or Financial Officer.

Alternatively, phone the toll-free Volunteer Grants Hotline 1800 183 374 for assistance with any queries.

Who can apply: FaHCSIA can only enter into a Funding Agreement with an organisation that is a legal entity. If an organisation is not a legal entity, an eligible sponsor organisation may apply for funding on your behalf. An organisation may sponsor a maximum of 50 Eligible organisations must be Australian not-for-profit organisations whose volunteers' work supports families and/or communities in Australia and are legal entities, such as but not limited to:

- Incorporated Associations - incorporated under State/Territory legislation (commonly have 'Association', 'Incorporated' or 'Inc' in their legal name)
- Incorporated Cooperatives - incorporated under State/Territory legislation (commonly have 'Cooperative' in their legal name)
- Indigenous Corporations
- Companies - not-for-profit proprietary companies or public companies, incorporated under the Corporations Act 2001
- Organisations established through a specific piece of Australian or State/Territory legislation (for example, many public benevolent institutions and churches)

Grant: ANZ Staff Foundation Grants G00351

Provider: ANZ Trustees as Trustee for the ANZ Staff Foundation

Category: Community Services & Development

Funding: Various

Closes: 15 July 2011

You must be a charitable organisation with Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) Status to apply for this grant

(See Part 3 for more information)

Purpose: To help meet the real and emerging needs of Australian communities.

Overview: The ANZ Staff Foundation was established in 1988 as a perpetual charitable trust to build a perpetual source of funds to meet the real and emerging needs of charitable organisations in Australia.

The Foundation is funded by regular contributions made by ANZ and ANZ staff. Staff at all levels are also actively encouraged to support the work of the Foundation by giving their time and support to some of the projects which the Foundation funds.

The charities and projects funded are selected by the ANZ Staff Foundation's National Advisory Board, which comprises ANZ staff elected from each state and ANZ appointed members.

The ANZ Staff Foundation has a national funding program for a range of charitable projects, which offer a direct and tangible benefit to the Australian Community.

ANZ staff involvement: The ANZ Staff Foundation will give preference to organisations and projects:

- To the extent to which it creates opportunities for ANZ staff to participate as volunteers
- That are already supported by ANZ staff
- That are initiated by ANZ staff in association with community organisations in which they are already actively involved

Your application should include details on how ANZ staff can help. The ANZ Staff Foundation aims to fund small projects (preferred amount of up to $5,000) in the following areas:

- Skills and independence: give people the skills to manage their lives and provide them with independence, in particular financial literacy
- Environment: assist communities to conserve resources and protect the environment
- Local initiatives: innovative projects from local community organisations
- Capacity building: to assist organisations to build their capacity to deliver sustainable benefits to their community (particularly in rural areas)

Limitations: The ANZ Staff Foundation will not consider requests from:

- Individual applicants
- Political organisations
- Religious or sectarian organisations involved in purely religious/sectarian activities (with the exception of projects which benefit the wider community)
- Foundations that are themselves grantmaking bodies
- Bequest programs
- Mainstream schools

Copyright www.ourcommunity.com.au – Not for unauthorised redistribution Page 16 – NT Edition 4 - 2011

- Hospitals, medical centres or medical research institutes

Additionally, the Foundation does not make grants for:

- Endowments
- Fundraising events/campaigns and appeals
- Core costs and general operating expenses
- Capital investment eg: buildings
- Debt retirement and budget deficits.

Who can apply: Applicants need DGR status.

Provider: Bundanon Trust

Category: Community Services & Development

Closes: 29 July 2011 Opens: 2 May 2011

Purpose: To provide opportunities for serious creative development in all art forms in the special environment of the Bundanon properties.

Overview: The Artist in Residence Program offers an inspirational setting for creative thinkers and professional artists, from all disciplines, for the development of new work, research and collaboration.

As a gift to the Australian people, Arthur Boyd's vision for Bundanon was to provide an inspirational haven for artists of every discipline and at all stages in their careers.

The program supports artists' new work, research and collaborations. Australian and international artists are hosted in purpose-built studios located at the Bundanon properties on the Shoalhaven River in NSW for up to six weeks.

Bundanon Trust encourage:

- Artists practising in the visual and performing arts, craft and design, digital and technological arts, writers, filmmakers, musicians and sound designers

- Collaborative and/or multidisciplinary projects

- Groups applying for workshop residencies

- Collegiate networks and cultural discourse between critical thinkers, curators and educators. Bundanon supports symposia, masterclasses and conferences

- Mentored artist residencies through partnerships with galleries, arts organisations and educational institutions

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists and performers are encouraged to apply.

Grant: Optus Connecting Communities Grants Program G04849

Provider: Optus

Category: Community Services & Development

Funding: Max per grant: $5,000 Min per grant: $1,000

Closes: 13 July 2011 Opens: 18 May 2011

You must be a charitable organisation with Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) Status to apply for this grant

(See Part 3 for more information)

Purpose: Optus Connecting Communities Grants funding will be awarded to projects aimed at building social inclusion and supporting disengaged youth. 2011 will be the fourth year we have run the grants program.

Overview: Building Social Inclusion:

- by providing access to communications

Ensuring that we can provide access to communications to individuals or groups that are currently excluded is one way that Optus can make a significant contribution to society and help improve lives.

- by connecting disengaged communities

Supporting services, networks and groups across Australia to help build local capacity and develop solutions to improve community issues and concerns

Supporting disengaged youth:

- by improving their education, life skills and knowledge

Helping disadvantaged young people improve their education, life skills and knowledge is key to changing their future and helping them to reach their full potential in life. Improving disadvantaged youth people with their education will also help in providing more employment opportunities which also benefit the local economy.

Who can apply: These grants are aimed at assisting communities and therefore individuals and for-profit organisations are not eligible to apply for grants through the Optus Connecting Communities Grants Program.

Optus will only accept applications for the Optus Connecting Communities Grants Program from or on behalf of

Australian incorporated organisations that have been endorsed by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) as Tax

Concession Charities (TCC) and Deductible Gift Recipients (DGR). If you are unsure of your organisation's tax status, check with your financial advisor and the Australian Government's ABN website www.abr.business.gov.au

Grant: Community Benefit Card G05069

Provider: Ritchies

Category:Community Services & Development

Funding: Various

Closes: Ongoing

Purpose: To donate a percentage of the money spent by Ritchies customers to their nominated club, school or charity.

Overview: Ritchies' Community Benefit Card program offers savings for customers and fundraising dollars for nominated organisations at the same time!

Here's how it works!

- Ask for your free Ritchies' Community Benefit Card at your nearest Ritchies supermarket or liquor store!

- Application forms are available at all Ritchies supermarkets and liquor stores.

- Enter the name of your service or sporting club, school, kindergarten, hospital or favourite charity as the recipient of a donation from Ritchies.

Copyright www.ourcommunity.com.au – Not for unauthorised redistribution Page 20 – NT Edition 4 - 2011

- Ritchies Community Benefit Card application form is returned to our Head Office, where the details are entered into our computer to enable us to work out how much to donate to your nominated group at the end of each month.

- We do not ask you to give us your name or address! Simply tell the cashier the name of the organisation that you would like to be the recipient of a donation on your behalf and we'll be happy. We just love giving money back to the community!

- Your individually bar coded Ritchies' Community Benefit Card will be issued and can be used immediately.

Choose between a key tag to place on your key ring or the convenience of a plastic card for your wallet or purse.

- Every time you shop at Ritchies, you will need to present the card or key tag to the cashier.

- Every time the bar code on the card is scanned, 1% of the money you spend is automatically allocated to your nominated group.

- Make sure you're not the only person to nominate your organisation! You'll need 5 to 10 other friends or members at least, spending a total of $1,000 between them in the month, to qualify for the minimum donation of $10.

- There is no limit to the amount an organisation can receive through Ritchies' Community Benefit Card program. Put simply, the more members or supporters shopping at Ritchies, the greater the size of the donation that Ritchies will give you each month.
- There are also around 4,000 weekly specials that have extra discounts for Ritchies' Community Benefit Cardholders. These "CB" specials are clearly marked with red shelf tickets bearing the Community Benefit logo and can save you anything from 5 cents to $5 per item.

How to apply: In store

Grant: Sunshine Foundation Grants G00573

Provider: Sunshine Foundation

Category: Health & Wellbeing

Funding: Max per grant: $10,000 Min per grant: $500

Closes: 1 July 2011

You must be a charitable organisation with Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) Status to apply for this grant

(See Part 3 for more information)

Purpose: To support projects which help alleviate human suffering, attend to matters of social need, advance the frontiers of knowledge and enhance the quality of life.

Overview: The Trustees will give attention to projects that seek to:

- Alleviate human suffering eg. address the problem of drug and alcohol abuse or the impact of natural disasters;
- Attend to matters of social need;
- Advance the frontiers of knowledge;
- Enhance the quality of life (such as conservation and environmental projects, the performing and creative arts).

In the main, projects that are supported by voluntary labour or which are low cost tend to be favoured - as would projects that only require "seed" funding (ie. a small injection of funds which would enable a project to become self sufficient).

Only projects that are domiciled in Australia will be supported.

Limitations: Grants will not be made for travel purposes, such as academics travelling to conferences.

Applications for capital funds for building projects will receive low priority.

In the main, grants will not be made "Foundation to Foundation", or for reduction of debt or to cover a shortfall in operating budgets.

Projects whose budgets consist mainly of wages and or consultancy fees will be accorded low priority.

Likewise, projects that are designed to replace activities that are normally the responsibility of one or more of the tiers of Government will receive low priority. For example, funds to pay a teacher's salary, money to purchase a hospital bed will not be supported.

Applicants are required to demonstrate "charitable status" and this is achieved by providing a copy of their "Charity

Tax Concession" letter from the ATO (Formally known as "ITEC") noting specifically that the applicant is a "charitable institution" and is endorsed as income tax exempt. If the does not have a copy of this new endorsement stating they are income tax exempt, then they must apply for a copy from the ATO to enable a submission to the sunshine
